

The National Register of Historical Companies is a tool of knowledge and promotion for business realities that, over time

have been able to combine
innovation and tradition

openness to the world
and belonging
to the community

Currently, thanks to the contribution of the Chambers of Commerce, more than 1,300 companies - cent enary

or ultra

centenary -
are already registered

The enrollment certificate for the Historical Companies Registry has been released for our Agency on december 12, 2011.
